Travel With Puente Dec 2: La Pastorela: The Shepherd's Tale

Puente students invite members of the SRJC community to join them when they travel to San Juan Bautista on Friday, December 2 to enjoy the Christmas production of El Teatro Campesino: La Pastorela: The Shepherd's Tale. The spectacular pageant/play is being presented in the historic Mission of San Juan Bautista located south of San Francisco.

The show will start at 8:00 PM, and the cost of admission and transportation on a charter bus is $20. You can purchase tickets at the Puente office. The bus will depart SRJC at 1:00 PM in front of the Puente Office, and will return to SRJC around 1:00AM. Don't miss this wonderful event! For more information about El Teatro Campesino, access http://www.elteatrocampesino.com

Sign Up For Italy Summer 2006!

From July 1 to 22, 2006, live in high above the Adriatic Sea in the charming mountain town of Urbania, Italy, while you study Italian for three weeks at the Centro Studi Italiani. You'll live with an Italian family or in your own apartment and experience the Italy that tourists never see! Italian classes are offered in the mornings, leaving your afternoons free for optional field trips or classes in painting, ceramics, cooking, and much more. No previous experience in Italian is necessary! Costs include books and tuition at Centro Studi Italiani and a bilingual escort while in Urbania.

To explore SRJC's incredible learning and travel opportunity through the fourth annual trip to the Center for Italian Studies in Urbania, Italy, access www.santarosa.edu/sa, click on "Urbania." The Web site includes a list of upcoming informational sessions, plus there are faculty members who have participated for many years who will gladly share with you their experience in Italy. We're sure that you will be easily persuaded to join this experience of a lifetime!

Contact Gino Muszzatti, Italian and ESL Instructor, at ext. 4886. But remember, for more information about this unique and wonderful summer program. Also, the summer Italian trip is the last for faculty and staff until possibly 2008, so give Gino a call so you won't miss out on this splendid lifetime adventure.
