SUBJECT WITH GUN AT PETALUMA CENTER

On May 6, 2010 at 12:15 pm the Santa Rosa Junior College Police Department received a phone call from an off campus caller reporting that a student on the Petaluma Campus may have been carrying a gun in his backpack.

Police Officers from the Junior College Police Department and the Petaluma Police Department responded and located the student in the campus food court. Police contacted the student and checked his backpack. There was no gun in the backpack. It was determined that the student does not have access to firearms and no gun was brought on campus.

The student was released after the police completed their investigation.
