

SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE ALL FACULTY ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For purposes deemed good and wise, we faculty members in the Sonoma County Junior College District herewith form the Santa Rosa Junior College All Faculty Association, incorporated as a non-profit organization according to the requirements of the State of California. The goal of this organization is to represent ALL regular, probationary, temporary and adjunct faculty in the Sonoma County Junior College District in matters relating to employment conditions and employer-employee relations including, but not limited to, wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, pursuant to California State law and our own sense of professional responsibility.

ARTICLE I. NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization is the Santa Rosa Junior College All Faculty Association Incorporated (herein called the All Faculty Association).

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership is generally available to all regular, probationary, temporary and adjunct faculty employees of the Sonoma County Junior College District, except those employees defined as supervisory, or management personnel pursuant to Chapter 10.7 of the California State Government Code. However, the All Faculty Association may establish in its bylaws other reasonable restrictions regarding who may join the All Faculty Association and may make reasonable provisions for the dismissal of individuals.

Section 2. Each member of the All Faculty Association is entitled to one vote on issues presented to the membership.

Section 3. Membership in other professional organizations does not prejudice All Faculty Association membership.

Section 4. Membership is on an individual basis and continues on payment of membership approved annual dues and Executive Council levied special assessments.

ARTICLE III. ASSOCIATION DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Annual dues shall be set as a percentage of the individual member's gross income from the Sonoma County Junior College District, but shall not exceed a fixed maximum approved by the membership.

Section 2. Annual dues shall be proposed by the Executive Council after due consideration of the projected cost of the level of service desired by the membership. The membership will then approve or disapprove any change in the dues by a vote decided by a majority of those members voting.

Section 3. When a financial emergency is deemed to exist by a 2/3 vote of the Executive Council, the Council may levy a special assessment, which shall be considered separate and independent of regular dues.

ARTICLE IV. EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1. The authority to govern the All Faculty Association is vested in an Executive Council (herein also called the Council) of no fewer than 16 and no greater than 25 voting members. The Council has the authority to determine policy and direct the operation of the All Faculty Association.

Section 2. Each member of the Executive Council shall represent either regular, probationary and temporary faculty, or adjunct faculty. The number of members representing regular, probationary and temporary faculty, and the number of members representing adjunct faculty shall be:

- A. 11 and 5, or
- B. 13 and 6, or
- C. 15 and 7, or
- D. 17 and 8, respectively.

The Bylaws shall determine the basis of representation.

Section 3. The Executive Council is empowered to create all Bylaws and rules necessary for the operation of the All Faculty Association. Approval or deletion of any Bylaw shall require an affirmative vote of two thirds of the Executive Council.

Section 4. Each Council member shall be elected for a term of two years. The Bylaws shall determine the dates and methods of election, and limitation on terms of office.

Section 5. The All Faculty Association, in whatever way shall be deemed appropriate and reasonable, may compensate members for participation in regular Council activities.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS

Section 1. The Executive Council shall have a President, two Vice-presidents, a Secretary/Treasurer, a Conciliation/Grievance Officer, and a Chief Negotiating Officer. These are the officers of the All Faculty Association. Their terms of office shall be determined in the Bylaws. The Council may institute a President-Elect position according to the provisions in the Bylaws.

Section 2. The Council officers shall be elected through majority vote of the Executive Council, according to the provisions put forth in the Bylaws.

Section 3. Duties of Officers shall be as stated in the Bylaws.

Section 4. All Faculty Association officers may be given compensation. The amount and type of compensation shall be determined by the Executive Council after due consideration of All Faculty Association resources.

ARTICLE VI. GENERAL MEETINGS

Section 1. There shall be at least one general meeting each semester. Upon written request of twenty-five (25) members of the All Faculty Association, or whenever deemed necessary by the Council, general All Faculty Association meetings shall be called and publicized by the Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 2. The Executive Council shall call a general meeting of the All Faculty Association within 15 working days of the conclusion of negotiations for the purpose of discussing the tentative agreements reached with the District.

ARTICLE VII. RATIFICATION OF CONTRACT

Section 1. Ratification shall be accomplished by ballot, mailed or distributed to each All Faculty Association member. Ballots shall be distributed at the time of the General Meeting, and shall be due for counting within ten (10) working days after the General Meeting following negotiations.

ARTICLE VIII. CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

Section 1. Changes to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the All Faculty Association and shall be accomplished in the following manner:

- A. A written proposed Constitutional change shall be presented to the Executive Council at one of its regular meetings. Intention to present the proposed change must be declared before the meeting to allow time for the proposal's inclusion in the meeting agenda.
- B. At its next regular meeting, the Council shall decide whether or not to submit the proposed change to the membership for a vote. Two thirds of the Executive Council must approve before the issue will be taken to the membership for a vote.
- C. If Executive Council approval is obtained, the proposed change will be reproduced and distributed to all All Faculty Association members.
- D. A vote of the All Faculty Association membership will be obtained not more than ten (10) working days after distribution of the proposed change. An affirmative vote of the majority of those voting shall be required for approval.
