SEPTEMBER'S FEATURED BOOKS

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo by Stieg Larsson

This debut thriller--the first in a trilogy from the late Stieg Larsson--is a serious page-turner rivaling the best of Charlie Huston and Michael Connelly. Mikael Blomkvist, a once-respected financial journalist, watches his professional life rapidly crumble around him. Prospects appear bleak until an unexpected (and unsettling) offer to resurrect his name is extended by an old-school titan of Swedish industry. The catch--and there's always a catch--is that Blomkvist must first spend a year researching a mysterious disappearance that has remained unsolved for nearly four decades.

Body Rhymes by Donna Emerson

In this, her second book, local poet and SRJC faculty member Donna Emerson emphasizes the body's wisdom, whether speaking as a young child, a daughter, preteen, lover, mother, or clinical social worker helping others. Donna read from this work on Monday, August 31 at the Mahoney Library on the Petaluma Campus.
