

Santa Rosa Junior College Student Affairs Office

Student Learning Outcomes:

Each student who participates in the Leadership Programs* offered through the Student Affairs Office should be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of leadership purpose and how it relates to principles, values and beliefs.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of group dynamics including conflict resolution and group decision making processes.
3. Demonstrate an understanding for ethical decision-making and how it relates to personal integrity.
4. Demonstrate how to communicate effectively to improve relationships and group success.
5. Demonstrate an understanding and appreciation for those from other cultural backgrounds and perspectives.
6. Demonstrate an understanding of the importance of personal responsibility in affecting community development and change.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of how personal actions, attitudes and lifestyles affect sustainability.

Student Government (Senate/ASP), Student Clubs, Student Ambassadors, LeaderCenter Seminars & Trainings, and the Leadership Dynamics Class*