*Russ Gleason Memorial Arena
Dedication Ceremony, Sept. 11, 2008
Shone Farm, Santa Rosa Junior College*

Russ Gleason Arena Dedication Sept 11

The college community is invited to attend the Russ Gleason Memorial Arena Dedication Ceremony set for September 11 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM at the Shone Farm. The outdoor ceremony will be casual dress with a reception following.

The new Russ Gleason Memorial Arena was named in honor of Russ Gleason, a SRJC graduate and former student body president, dedicated educator, avid horseman, and active community leader who passed away at age 42 in 1990. Members of Russ's family will be in attendance at the dedication, including his mother Norma, wife Julie, children Caitlin and Patrick, brother Mark, and sister Pamela.

The long awaited arena was built with the donations of many individuals in the community and Measure A funds, and includes seating, stock enclosures, and parking for equitation classes, conferences, workshops, and agricultural field days that support students pursuing training in the equine field.

If you plan to attend, be sure to RSVP by August 28 to Fran Golden in Bailey Hall on the Santa Rosa Campus.

Harvey Hansen Bar-B-Q Sept 5

It's time for faculty, alumni, board members, and staff to make their reservations to attend the 24th Annual Harvey Hansen Barbecue scheduled on September 5 at the beautiful Shone Farm. This fun-filled, casual event is a perfect time to welcome newcomers to SRJC and reconnect with your friends and coworkers. Highfeather will again cater this year's event, serving delicious barbecue, plus you can enjoy musical entertainment by the Steve Morris and Mike Ferrell Band.

5:00 PM - Hospitality/Wine Tasting/Tours

---

6:15 PM - Dinner/Visiting

---

7:00-9:00 PM - Music/Dancing - Steve Morris/Mike Ferrell Band

New permanent SRJC employees who were hired in the last 10 months can attend free as the event's special guests! The cost of the event is $15 per person (covers food and a $1-2 donation to Harvey Hansen Scholarship).

RSVP ASAP! Submit your reservation form, which will be distributed the first week of the fall semester through college mail, with your check (payable to "SRJC" with a notation "Harvey Hansen") to Anne McLain in Human Resources (527-4787). If you don't receive an invitation, contact Melinda Giambruno at 524-1581 or [mgiamb Bruno@santarosa.edu](mailto:mgiamb Bruno@santarosa.edu).

Disaster Response Kits & Emergency Preparedness Kits

To be well-prepared for small or large scale emergencies, Disaster Response Kits (DRKs) and Emergency Preparedness Kits (EPKs) are located across the College. College employees should be aware that there are distinct uses of DRKs and EPKs.

Disaster Response Kits (or DRKs) are a very specific type of rescue kit prepared for CERT trained response teams. (CERT refers to Community Emergency Response Team.) DRKs include tools for CERT team members to conduct search and rescue operations, provide life saving interventions, and safely exit damaged buildings in the event of a disaster. DRKs are also used by SRJC staff or faculty during any search and rescue activities that may occur. For more information, access <https://www.citizencorps.gov/cert/about.shtm>.

Funded, purchased, and maintained by North Coast College University Mutual Group, which includes SRJC, DRKs are placed strategically on each floor in all large college buildings. They are usually found in 1½ ft x 1½ ft x 2 ft tall cardboard boxes with red words “Disaster Response Kit” on the side

Emergency Preparedness Kits (or EPKs) are customized individual or small group kits that require no specific training to use. Kits should include simple food, water, and comfort items to help a person survive during the first 72 hours following a significant emergency. Emergency Preparedness Kits are funded by each department; SRJC does not purchase individual or group EPKs. Since the Emergency Preparedness Kit is for personal use, individuals can customize their own compact Emergency Preparedness Kit. For example, you can purchase a backpack and fill it with items that may be essential during and after an emergency, such as an extra pair of glasses, medications, or even reading materials.

Please note the following differences in the content of Disaster Response Kits (DRK) and an Emergency Preparedness Kits (EPK):

DISASTER RESPONSE KIT	EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS KIT
PUBLIC USE FOR SEARCH AND RESCUE	INDIVIDUAL OR SMALL GROUP USE
NO FOOD SUPPLIES OR RATIONS	HEATER MEALS TO ENERGY BARS
WATER FOR RESCUE TEAM OPERATIONS	WATER - BASED ON INDIVIDUAL NEEDS
ASSORTED RESCUE GEAR – HELMETS, GLOVES, ETC.	NO RESCUE GEAR
ADVANCED FIRST AID KIT	SIMPLE PERSONAL FIRST AID KIT
FLASHLIGHTS, ROPE, CUTTING TOOLS	FLASHLIGHT OR GLOW STICK ONLY
SHELTER TARP	CUSTOMIZE WITH TUBE TENT/SMALL TARP
NO PERSONALIZED ITEMS	ADD MEDS, EXTRA GLASSES, AS NEEDED

It is important that SRJC departments have emergency kits readily accessible in the workplace. Employees should also prepare emergency kits for home and for the car.

Contact Don Silverek, SRJC’s Emergency Preparedness Coordinator, with questions about disaster response kits, emergency preparedness kits, or survival kits at 535-3789 or dsilverek@santarosa.edu.

Save the Date! Petaluma Campus Dedication Sept 26

It is an exciting time to be a part of our growing college! As we near the completion of Phase II of the construction of the Petaluma Campus, the college community is invited to a formal dedication on September 26 at 2:00 PM. Community dignitaries, alumni, and special friends of the Petaluma Campus will come together at Rotary Plaza for a ceremony with Petaluma's faculty, students, and staff. More details to follow in upcoming issues of the Insider.

Teach In Europe - Sign-up Deadline Sept 19

SRJC faculty members from all disciplines are encouraged to apply for SRJC's Study Abroad Program to teach in the fall 2009 London, fall 2009 Paris, or spring 2010 Florence programs. The deadline to apply is Friday, September 19.

Participating faculty will serve as advisors to students during the program. Participating faculty are also expected to actively recruit students to the program, which requires a considerable amount of time before departure to promote the program and provide program orientations. Any proposed curriculum to teach in Europe must have broad appeal. For applications to the Study Abroad program, call 527-4441 or e-mail ljohns@santarosa.edu.

Sonoma County Book Festival Sept 20

The 9th annual Sonoma County Book Festival is scheduled on Saturday, September 20 from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM at Old Courthouse Square in Santa Rosa. Geared to families, the festival draws more than 60 authors from the Bay Area and the nation who will read from their published works and participate in discussion panels and workshops. Topics will range from mystery, thriller, nonfiction, and debut fiction to poetry, self-help, travel, and books for youth. Authors will include Cristina Garcia, Toni Mirosevich, James Tipton, Susan Griffin, Noelle Oxenhandler, Lisa Margonelli, Julia Whitty, Gaye LeBaron, and many more. There will also be 70 exhibitor booths showcasing writers, booksellers, publishers, and literary groups. Admission is free and includes readings, panels, and activities for all ages. For all details, visit <http://www.socobookfest.org/>.

Culinary Café Open To Faculty & Staff Aug 22

SRJC's Culinary Café will be open especially for college faculty and staff (no public) on Friday, August 22. Café front house and baking students will have the opportunity to prepare, cook, and serve a delicious lunch to those who make reservations. Call to make reservations from noon to 1:30 PM at 576-0279 - you'll receive a 15 percent discount for your meal!

Volunteer! United Way's Day of Caring Sept 10

Members of the SRJC community are invited to volunteer at the United Way's 18th Annual Day of Caring event on September 10. If you cannot donate to local charities through SRJC's Annual Payroll Deduction Campaign, volunteer instead to provide hands-on assistance. Offering a wonderful opportunity to give back to the local community, SRJC volunteers can use a vacation day or an earned CTO day to lend a helping hand to a local service agency.

Director of Admissions and enrollment Services Diane Traversi is again putting together a team of eight enthusiasts to volunteer at Sutter VNA Hospice to wash windows inside and out. The day will kick off at 8:00 AM at a rally at Finley Park with coffee, juice, donuts, and some good fun. The volunteer day ends at 4:30 PM or earlier. E-mail Diane if you'd like to volunteer for this worthwhile effort.

7th Clo's Classic Set Sept 27

It's nearly time again for the exciting football competition Clo's Classic that's scheduled on September 27 at 7:00 PM on the Santa Rosa Campus. The game promises to be another challenging competition between SRJC's Bear Cubs and Fresno City College.

Clo's Classic is the perfect event for the whole family, plus one of the most unique aspects of the game is all members of both teams - in the spirit of community service - select local nonprofit organizations as beneficiaries of game proceeds. This year the beneficiaries are The Children's Village of Sonoma County and The Family Support Center of Catholic Charities.

Clo's Classic is sponsored by Clover-Stornetta, whose President Marcus Benedetti says, "We are pleased that once again a football game can provide entertainment, and enlighten competitive athletes to the needs of the community around them and ultimately give back to that community. Go Bear Cubs!"

Carnival! At 5:00 PM, a fun-filled Carnival will be held between the Zumwalt Parking Pavilion and Bailey Field for everyone's enjoyment! At half-time, the Rancho Cotate Marching Band will provide music.

Plan to attend Clo's Classic this year to support SRJC's outstanding players and the community service organizations that are this year's beneficiaries of the game. Admission to Clo's Classic is $10 adult, $5 for students without an AS card, $3 for seniors and children. All passes valid.

Steve Olson Retirement Celebration Nov 8

Save the date for Dean Steve Olson's retirement celebration spotlighting his 40 year career in education and agriculture! The event will be held on Saturday, November, 8 at the Shone Farm. SRJC's Ag Trust will host the retirement celebration - "Excellence in Education and Leadership" - in the Warren G. Dutton, Jr. Agriculture Pavilion.

Wine tasting and a silent auction start at 4:00 PM, with graduates of the Viticulture and Wine Studies programs pouring wine. A gourmet BBQ dinner will be provided by Highfeather Catering. Following dinner a program, entertainment, and a live auction are planned. For details, explore <http://www.agstravaganza.com/>.

Steve joined SRJC's staff in 1970 and retired formally in 2007 as Dean of Occupational Education and Economic Development. He has been a pivotal figure in north coast education and agriculture, receiving many honors and accolades for his contributions and community service to agriculture, education and farm youth. Look for more details in upcoming Insiders, and call 521-7898 with questions about the event.

Best wishes to Computer Studies Instructor Scott Rosen and his wife Gia for the birth of their son Andrew Bennett Rosen. Baby Andy arrived on Sunday, August 17 at 7:03 AM weighing 51bs, 13 oz; he was 19". Scott and Gia have two other children, daughter Hannah and son Jacob. Congratulations to the Rosen family.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Corinne Dressler, Graphics Services & Copy Center Coordinator, on her June 16 marriage to Sandra Nott. The couple was married in the evening at the Sonoma County Clerk's Office wearing beautiful homemade rose and carnation leis. They also released two white doves following the ceremony, which was performed by County Clerk John Diaz. Sonoma County was one of five California counties that performed legal marriages for same-sex couples for the first time on June 16. Congratulations, Corinne and Sandra.

WOW! Fair Sept 17

The seventh annual WOW! - Work-on-Wellness - Fair will be held on the Santa Rosa Campus on Wednesday, September 17 from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM at the outdoor stage near the Bookstore. Many informative displays and presentations about health, fitness, and wellness are scheduled on this exciting day.

There will also be a Raffle Drawing! Employees who attend may enter the free WOW! Fair Raffle Drawing for a chance to win one of many terrific gifts donated by vendors. Once signed up, you don't have to be present at the drawing to win. There will also be free give-aways for the first 250 guests, so be sure to visit the WOW! Information Booth to receive your gifts.

If you have any questions about WOW!, call Environmental Health and Safety at 527-4803. We look forward to seeing you on September 17!
