31st Day Under the Oaks Set For May 3

Members of the college community are encouraged to sign up for SRJC's 31st Day Under the Oaks, the college's popular open house and community education fair that draws nearly 10,000 guests to the Santa Rosa Campus the first Sunday in May each year. This year's Day Under the Oaks is scheduled on Sunday, May 3 from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

Last year's DUO was one of the largest to date, with over 125 activities and booths on campus that ranged from instructional and student service displays to fun-filled children's activities, craft booths, and many other interesting exhibits and activities. Sign up on the DUO Web site before March 31 using participation forms at http://www.santarosa.edu/about_srjc/day-under-the-oaks/. You can also access the DUO Web site from SRJC's home page under "What's New." Be sure to take a look at last year's event photos and many others from past years to see what an array of wonderful activities are offered at Day Under the Oaks. Call Public Relations with questions at ext. 4266. This year's DUO design is by Joy Gipson.

AEF Presents Spring Lecture Series

The Administrative/Executive Assistant Forum (AEF) has scheduled a four-part lecture series for SRJC employees titled "Reconceptualizing Change and Your Relationship to Change." Lectures will be presented by guest lecturer Richard W. Stackman, Ph.D., Associate Professor and Director of the College of Professional Studies from the University of San Francisco.

The series addresses our roles in leading change at SRJC, how to provide a better understanding of the impact of change, especially in light of the current fiscal challenges and the accreditation process. Dr. Stackman will also discuss developing an awareness of multicampus issues that drive change to help improve the alignment among multiple sites and an improved link to institutional planning and strategies to avoid "change fatigue."

FIRST PRESENTATION

"Post Accreditation Visit: Implementing the Necessary Changes without Killing Ourselves"

Wednesday, February 25, 1:00 to 3:00 PM, Doyle Library, Room 4245

The lectures will be video conferenced to the Petaluma Campus to the Mahoney Library, Room 726. Funding for the lecture series through Staff Development. More information at http://www.santarosa.edu/src/s_2009_flex_activi.html.

Cochlear Implant & Hearing Loss Support Group Trainings Jan-May

Free, noncredit trainings are offered on the Santa Rosa Campus to provide education and support to adults with hearing loss. Students, parents, and community members are invited to attend trainings that are held in Room 4245 of the Doyle Library from 6:00 to 8:00 PM that focus on topics ranging from cochlear implants and overcoming communication challenges to hearing aids, loop systems, and other technology.

Captioning/transcribing and assistive listening devices will be available at each meeting. Daily parking permits are required parking lot machines for $3.00 per day.

February 18 - Help with Tinnitus - Tracy Peck, Au.D. of the Hearing and Speech Center in San Francisco, will share the latest information on Tinnitus, including information about diagnosis and medical and alternative treatments.

March 18 - CTAP - Skippy Sumner from California Technology Assistance Program (CTAP) will review the latest technology available to individuals with hearing loss to improve telephone communication and how to access a free phone that meet particular needs.

April 15 - Cochlear Americas - Linda Day, Manager of the Cochlear Awareness Network for Cochlear Americas, will review current cochlear implants research and technology. A cochlear implant technology teacher, Linda supports individuals who have or may be cochlear implant candidates.

May 13 - New CI Users Panel - CI Users Panel - Informational panel discussion by individuals who have received cochlear implant within the past year. Participants learn firsthand about their experiences and decision-making process.

Contact Debbie Ezersky at 522-2702/V, 522-2657/TTY, or dezersky@santarosa.edu to request an interpreter, to register for the class, or more information.

Race Health Sciences Building Update

Extensive repair work of the Race Building on the Santa Rosa Campus continues to progress, including replacing defective windows, flashing, and exterior brick and stucco. Constructed in 2000 for $10 million, Race opened in 2001. During the first couple of years of occupancy, exterior walls started to progressively leak and water was seeping in around the windows, causing serious damage to interior walls and ceilings. To repair these urgent problems, temporary emergency repairs were started in 2004, and in 2008 permanent reconstruction was initiated while keeping the building open to students and faculty.

The four-story building is named for former SRJC Trustee William "Ben" Race and houses classrooms and clinics for 1,200 students in one of SRJC's most popular programs, Health Sciences, which trains nurses, dental assistants, and medical technicians. A settlement was approved by the District's Board of Trustees on February 10, 2009, that will reimburse the College for all costs, on a dollar for dollar basis, associated with Race repairs. Completion of repairs to Race is anticipated in mid spring 2009.

Employee of the Month Davida Brookfield February 2009

Congratulations to Telecommunications Technician Davida Brookfield for being selected the Santa Rosa Junior College Employee of the Month for February 2009. Davida was introduced at the February 10 Board of Trustees meeting by Mike Flaa, Supervisor, Campus Data/Telecommunications, Computing Services. She also received an EOM plaque, season tickets to SRT performances, gift vouchers for the Culinary Café, and other gifts from her coworkers. "Davida has been dedicated to the College and its students and staff for 18 years. She has given a lot to the District, and I feel it is imperative that we reward her. She truly deserves this honor," says Mike.

As Telecommunications Technician in Computing Services, Davida's primary responsibilities are administering SRJC's phone system, voice mail, call accounting, and the Phone Switch Directory. "I enjoy helping others and solving problems quickly for them. It is my goal that when college users pick up their phone or try to log into their mailboxes that everything is functioning as it should," Davida says. "Davida alone ensures that the telecommunications systems are always in good working order. She quickly takes care of users needs and always puts the college community first," Mike emphasizes. One aspect of Davida's work she especially enjoys is the variety: "Everyday at work is different from the next. What makes my job so much fun are the many tasks." She also enthusiastically takes on the challenge of assisting with the College's major transitions, such as the recent Doyle Library, Petaluma Campus build out, and the Plover Hall remodel. "In addition to performing her regular duties, Davida pulls double duty by keeping track of all incoming inventory and ensuring that all our computing services customers are well taken care of," Mike says. "She is always smiling and has a wonderful way of making any situation seem like its going to work out fine. She is calm and professional and is a fine human being who is a real pleasure to work with."

Born in Detroit, Michigan, Davida's family moved to Forestville in 1970, where she still lives. A graduate of El Molino High School, she attended UC Santa Cruz, transferred to SRJC and Empire College, and earned a certificate in accounting. Davida worked for Glendale Federal Bank in Sebastopol for eight years as a Vault Teller and CSR Supervisor before joining the SRJC staff in 1991 when she was hired as a Telecommunications and Account Clerk II in Bailey Hall. "I was responsible for the Information Desk, Mailroom, and Switchboard, and was the telecommunications contact for the District for any phone and voice mail issues that occurred," she says. Davida also worked in Business Services and Computing Services: "I realized that if I can wear that many hats and still keep people happy, I've accomplished a good thing. Since I've always enjoyed working with the public and helping District users, leaving the Information Desk in 1997 to focus 100 percent on the Telephony side of my job was a great step."

Davida credits the individuals she serves as the reason for her success at SRJC: "The College users make it easy for me. In all my years at SRJC everyone is so appreciative of even the smallest things you do for them. It's a pleasure to come to work and be surrounded by smart and funny people who understand how important a strong work ethic is." She identifies her greatest accomplishment at SRJC as "Being part of the major college projects, including the Doyle Library and Petaluma Phase II construction projects. "It's been so much fun during these transitions working with staff to ensure their phone needs are met. I like the responsibility of coordinating with vendors so when staff arrive at their new workstations, their equipment is up and running. This was really satisfying to me." She adds that her greatest challenge at SRJC has been "Learning about the wiring infrastructure on all the campuses and sites."

When asked what she likes most about her job, Davida unequivocally responds, "I love helping people, teaching them how to use their voice mail and phones, and being able to solve problems to help make their day a little bit better." She also very dedicated to the team she works with: "Despite our limited staff, I think the Network Technicians do a fantastic job. I work with the best group of guys who are wonderful people." What may surprise others most about Davida's job, "I review and reconcile all phone reports monthly for district users, as well as all the 50-60 monthly AT&T phone bills we receive. When equipment arrives at the Tech House, it's my responsibility to verify to the purchase orders, create job tickets for the Network Techs for the new PCs or Macs, and provide them with warranty labels, property tags, and a spreadsheet for the Fixed Asset database."

Davida continues to serve on numerous college committees at SRJC, including Day Under the Oaks, hiring committees, and the Giving Tree, and she has also taught phone workshops for Staff Development. Davida is also involved in a number of community activities, including serving as a Den Leader and officer for Cub Scout Pack 150 in Forestville. She enjoys many hobbies, ranging from family hiking, knitting, kayaking, bird watching, and scrapbooking to reading, antiquing, and cooking, but particularly enjoys spending time with her husband of 18 years, Corey, their 15 year old son Clay, a sophomore at El Molino High, and the family's Border Collie Ace and cat named Nuthor.

When told that she was nominated SRJC's Employee of the Month, Davida was very surprised: "To be perfectly honest, I was completely shocked, it was very surreal. There are so many folks in my area who do so much for the District; I felt extremely honored and touched that I was chosen. I feel very lucky to be part of SRJC."

Pat Tognozzi Scholarship Applications Due By March 6

Applications are being accepted for the 2009-2010 Tognozzi SRJC Classified Senate Scholarship. Applicants must be a relative of a current, permanent SRJC classified employee. The deadline to submit applications is Friday March 6 to the Scholarship Office in Plover Hall on the Santa Rosa Campus. Contact the Scholarship Office at 527-4740 if you have any questions or for application forms. The award will be presented at the March 30 Classified Recognition Dinner.

Faculty Jazz Concert Feb 27

SRJC's Music Department will present a concert by the Faculty Jazz Ensemble on Friday, February 27, at 8:00 PM in Newman Auditorium on the Santa Rosa Campus. The Jazz Ensemble, directed by Bennett Friedman, will perform original arrangements of jazz standards. The ensemble includes faculty members Michael Brandeburg, Paul Christophulos, Gary Digman, Joe Perea, and Chris Pimentel. The group will be joined by guest artists Scott Nygard and David Prescott. Admission to the concert is $10 general, $5 for students and seniors. For more information, call 527-4249.

Music Dept Presents Guitarist Escarpa Feb 27

On Friday, Feb. 27, at 8:00 PM, SRJC's Music Department will present Spanish Guitarist Margarita Escarpa in concert. She will perform mostly a Spanish program, including works of Tarrega and Albeniz, along with works of Bach and Villa-Lobos.

The concert will take place in room 105 of Forsyth Hall. Tickets are $15.00 at the door. For reservations or more information, call 829-6719 or e-mail prenkertguitars@sonic.net

Ms. Escarpa received her musical training at the Royal Conservatory of Madrid where she studied with the most prestigious performers of the day. She is the recipient of eight first prizes in international competitions and two in Spanish national competitions.

"Send A Shoe To Peru" Drive A Success

Bussman Service Center Administrative Assistant Kathy Melee extends "a big thank you" to the many individuals across the College who donated to the "Send a Shoe to Peru" drive. All donated shoes are being sent to a small village called Santa Clara outside Lima. The service learning project, which was initiated by two local Ursuline High School students, was brought to the attention of the Bussman Service Center by a current SRJC student who volunteers at a local high school. When the students discovered how badly closed toed shoes are needed by families in Peru, they started the drive, which successfully collected hundreds of pairs.

"Small Schools Event" Draws High School Students

Over 200 high school students from alternative high school education programs converged on Burbank Auditorium on the Santa Rosa Campus for the "Small Schools Event" on Thursday, February 5 from 9:00 AM to noon. Organized by Schools Relations Specialist Sharon Martinelli, the event was opened by Vice President of Student Services/Assistant Superintendent Ricardo Navarrete, who welcomed seniors from 18 alternative high schools, and SRJC Counselors Steve Morris and Geoff Navarro provided the entertaining transition for presenters. A college outreach video was presented and SRJC students discussed many topics ranging from counseling and EOPS to financial aid and scholarships. Manager of School Initiatives & Career Pathways Development Eve Nighswonger outlined information about popular industry jobs and promoted SRJC's 175 career certificate programs. Counselor Liz Giron rallied the students by recognizing each high school in attendance. Student leaders Ian Mauer and Amanda Alvarado discussed the many opportunities for students to become involved in SRJC's campus life. Exciting fencing and dance demonstrations closed the event to a highly enthusiastic audience.

Career Expo & Job Fair Set April 29

Mark your calendars now for the 2009 Career Expo & Job Fair that's scheduled on Wednesday, April 29. There are many ways to become involved in this popular event that is organized to support our students' success:

Increase student awareness by promoting the value of the career fair to students

Announce the date of the career fair early in the spring semester

Develop career-related activities for students that coincide with "Career Awareness Month" in April

Encourage student participation in precareer fair workshops offered in April provide the names of employers in various industries or disciplines who would be interested in participating

Contact Suzanne Papa at 527-4690 or spapa@santarosa.edu for additional information and look for updates in the spring semester about Career Expo & Job Fair.

Mark Your Calendar! Women's Faculty & Staff Lunch Feb 27

Women's History Month will kick off on Friday, February 27 at the Culinary Café when the annual "Women's Faculty & Staff Lunch" is held from noon to 2:30 PM. This year's guest speaker is Jacqueline Cabasso, renowned author, speaker, and activist on nuclear disarmament, the environment, and peace. She will speak about "Risking Peace, An Activist's Life."

Reservations for the luncheon can be made through Michele Bishop at mbishop@santarosa.edu in the ASL Department, Emeritus Service Center, on the Santa Rosa Campus. The cost of the luncheon is $22 per person ($17 for student employees); checks should be payable to "SRJC." Be sure to make your reservations by February 23. Select your lunch entrees, either chicken or vegetarian. Seating in the Culinary Café is limited, therefore, reservations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis.

Red Cross Seeks Heroes Nominations By Feb 27

The American Red Cross will hold the 6th Annual Real Heroes Awards Breakfast on Wednesday, April 29 at the Doubletree Hotel in Rohnert Park. Red Cross is seeking award nominees to honor at the event who have taken special action during the year to help others or who have shown extraordinary compassion for others.

You may submit information about a hero you may know by February 27 to heroes@arcs.org. A written overview about why the person or animal you nominate is a hero is required along with any related news articles, police reports, or witness names that verify the heroic acts. Call 577-7619 for more details about the nomination process.

Host Families Still Needed For Swedish Students

Families are still needed to house several Swedish students who will be among a group visiting SRJC between March 13 and April 17. It would be great to have more SRJC staff members be part of this excellent program and experience. Currently there are host families in Santa Rosa, Sebastopol, and Petaluma. You needn't live close to the Santa Rosa Campus to house a student, although you would need to ensure that the student gets to the Santa Rosa Campus for classes Monday through Thursday. The program is very supportive of host families so the visit works well for everyone involved.

If you have already left a voicemail with the Swedish Project and haven't received a call back, please call again, as some messages were inadvertently lost. Call Corinne Kriegel, Swedish Project Assistant, with any questions and to complete an application and in-home interview so you can host a student. It is a wonderful experience! ckriegel@santarosa.edu, 527-4999 extension 4971 (voicemail only)
