

BOOK REVIEWS

To find reviews for a book, you must first find out when the book was originally published. To do this, check the title page or ask a librarian to help you determine the publication date. Next, choose the volume for this date from one of the sources listed below. Except for the first source, none of these books contain actual reviews. Instead they refer you to magazines which contain reviews. Book Review Digest, however, does contain actual excerpts from book reviews.

BOOK REVIEW DIGEST, 1905-REF/Z/1219/.C95

The Title, Author and Subject indexes provide both excerpts of reviews and references to reviews in selected journals. Under the author's name you will find a brief summary of the book, references to reviews in magazines, and quotations from some reviews to give you an idea of the critical reaction.

BOOK REVIEW INDEX, 1965-REF/Z/1219/.B6

This is an index to book reviews for books published since 1965. It has no excerpts from reviews, but covers about 3 times as many magazines as Book Review Digest. You must know the author for a book published before 1976, because the title index was not added until then.

SEARCHBANK EXPANDED ACADEMIC INDEX

This computerized index of magazine articles is especially useful for reviews of books published within the last 3 to 4 years. Search alphabetically for the title of the book (movie, play, recording) being reviewed. You may also search under the author's last name.

PROQUEST DIRECT NEWSPAPERS

A computerized index to major newspapers. Includes the Las Angeles and New York Times book reviews among others.
