

MLA CITATION EXAMPLES: Subscription Databases

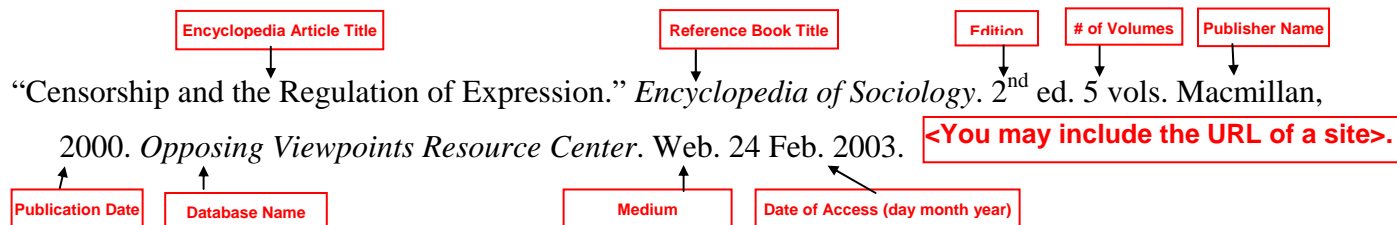

This guide is published as a supplement to the MLA Style Sheet, which can be found at <http://www.santarosa.edu/library/guides/mla.pdf>

Libraries pay a license fee for access to information in Subscription Databases provided by subscription services such as ProQuest or Gale. These databases provide information from different source types such as essays, reference sources or magazine/newspaper articles. Since most of these sources originated as print versions, MLA requires the inclusion of citation elements from both the print and the electronic versions.

MAGAZINES, JOURNALS AND NEWSPAPERS

REFERENCE SOURCES

- Determine source type and follow the citation format as closely as possible to the print version of the source.
- Include name of the database, type of medium (Web) and date of access.
- Month Abbreviations: Jan., Feb., Mar., April, May, June, July, Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec.

Do not follow citation guidelines given in the databases themselves. The guidelines are not always appropriate for the particular style you may be using.
