Pursuant to the requirements of the Seymour-Campbell Matriculation Act of 1986, the Sonoma County Community College District reaffirms its commitment to serve all students who can profit from its instructional programs, to ensure them equal educational opportunity, to provide them the necessary services for optimizing their opportunities for success, and to help students obtain the appropriate information/assistance for achieving their educational goals. The College will develop and maintain appropriate procedures to implement this Board policy.

By this statement, the Board acknowledges the intent of the Seymour-Campbell Matriculation Act and agrees to implement its regulations to the extent possible and as appropriate.
