

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS

Fall Semester 2010
September 9 – December 10

See your campus-based coordinator at participating colleges of the Northern California Study Abroad Consortium for course offerings and application procedure.

Applications due by Friday, May 14, 2010.

Fees from $7,745 detailed on the application.

- 12–15 units of transferable college credit awarded by the participating colleges
- California Community College faculty and local guest lecturers
- Financial aid available to eligible students
- Courses relevant to England and Europe
- Housing choices: twin room in a London home (homestay) or multi-bedded room in an apartment (for a supplemental fee)
- Travel pass for unlimited tube and bus travel in central London
- Heavily subsidized cultural program of events including theater visits, sporting events, walking tours, and day trips to Oxford, Bath, Brighton, Stonehenge and Stratford-Upon-Avon
- Membership of the University of London Union and local public library

- Classrooms and student services in the AIFS study center in central London
- Computer lab with free e-mail and Internet access
- Optional pre-program tour of Europe
- Optional mid-term break tour to Scotland
- Optional transportation package with transatlantic flights and round-trip airport transfers in London
- Support services, medical insurance and travel arrangements by the American Institute For Foreign Study®

For more information and an application go to:
www.aifspartnerships.com/ncsac

or contact your campus coordinator: