JUNIOR COLLEGE

Resource Center for Staff Development

ENHANCE YOUR TEACHING SKILLS WITH AN *I.S.W.

Five spaces are available in an Instructional Skills Workshop* for full-time faculty to be held JUNE 8 - 11, 2009.

WHAT IS IT?

The ISW is a practical, participatory 24-hour laboratory in which you can experiment with teaching techniques in a supportive atmosphere with peers. You will prepare and deliver three "mini-lessons" and receive immediate written, oral, and video feedback on them while connecting with colleagues from other disciplines.

WHEN IS IT?

Monday - Thursday, June 8 - June 11, 2009

9:00am - 4:00pm

Call Center, Room 3865

Six participants and two facilitators make a complete workshop. As a participant you commit to four 7-hour days (includes one hour for lunch) and daily preparation time outside of the workshop. There is no charge for the workshop. Two units of salary advancement credit are available upon completion as spelled out in the AFA Contract.

Questions? Call Jennifer Mann at 778-2495

Indicate your interest in participating below. Submit this form to the Resource Center for Staff Development by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 30, 2009 or respond by email to mboohar-poggi@santarosa.edu

PLEASE RESPOND ONLY IF YOU ARE ABLE COMMIT TO THE WORKSHOP AS OUTLINED ABOVE.
You will be notified of acceptance into the ISW by May 8.
